FAIR for Educators

by Debbie G.

***Please note the new location for this year's FA+IR for Educators: Tucson High Magnet School in central Tucson, just southwest of the University of Arizona campus.***

The Office of the Pima County School Superintendent invites Southern Arizona's entire pre-K -12 education community to its sixth annual free FA+IR for Educators. The name says it all: Fantastic A+ Instructional Resources are what this event is all about. Tucson is rich with learning resources, but researching and finding just the right ones can be overwhelming. FA+IR offers one-stop shopping to Southern Arizona's educators, with exhibitors from over 100 local museums, parks, non-profits, and businesses, plus breakouts presented by master teachers. When teaching is engaging, learning happens—FA+IR helps teachers discover resources to improve their instructional plans, and to make those plans more authentic and relevant.

Whether you are a classroom teacher, librarian, administrator, counselor, aide, homeschooler or after-school staff person—if you have a hand in educating our children, join us at FA+IR! There is no charge to attend but RSVP at <http://www.fairforeducators.net/> is requested so exhibitors will be sure to bring enough materials. Please note FA+IR's new location at Tucson Magnet High School.

If you have questions about FA+IR, please call Jaymie Jacobs at (520) 740-8213 or e-mail
